Dear Church Family,

As I write these words of thanks this bible passage comes to mind. Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. Lamentations 3:22 I can honestly say these last few days I truly have felt consumed with grief for the loss of my brother, consumed by the pain I have seen in my father's eyes and consumed by what feels like the actual breaking of my heart. But in all that grief I have seen the Lord's great love and compassion for me through all the loving actions of my church family. I cannot express enough what your prayers, cards and words of encouragement have meant to me. Thank you so much to Rickey Nails for driving the church bus to visitation and for all those who took time to come and show the love of Christ to my family in that difficult time. I know I will not be consumed because the Lord's compassions never fail and he uses the Body of Christ to lift us up in our pain. Thank you again my church family.

Love,
The Tafazoli Family
